

Assignment 04 - "5 page Informational Website"

Due:03/02/2017

Task: Create a five page website.

Points: 20

Description:

In this assignment, you will be developing a five page "static" website for a local business. The local business just received new funding from corporate to expand their online marketing reach. The branch manager, believe that updating their current out-of-date website will drive more traffic and generate more sales. The company has hired you, (a freelance developer) to do the job. The website specifications include the following:

Login Form:

1. Single column layout with a login form.
2. Username and password input.
3. Submit button.
4. Perform login logic and bind function to onclick event.
5. Redirect to home page on login success.

Home Page:

1. Header (with a logo of your business)
2. Footer (with copyright text)
3. Left sidebar (5 links)
4. Right sidebar with recent product listings
5. Main content area (displaying your product gallery)

About Page

1. A one column layout web page with company description and information
2. Header (with a logo of your business)
3. Footer (with copyright text)
4. At least three paragraph and one image

Contact Us Page

1. A two column layout page with a contact form.
2. Header (with a logo of your business)
3. Footer (with copyright text)
4. Contact form should collect first name, last name and email of the user.
5. Submit button. (Submit button will redirect to home screen).

Gallery Page

1. A two column layout webpage with an image gallery of all your product listings.
2. Header (with a logo of your business)
3. Footer (with copyright text)

4. Foreach product listings (image) include a heading (H1) and a brief description of the product and price.

Product Grid Page

1. A two column layout webpage with a table displaying your product information.
2. Header (with a logo of your business)
3. Footer (with copyright text)
4. Table header (<Image>, Item #, Name, Description, Price)